Three More Nights.

Mr. Needham announced last night that he could only remain in Mayaville three more nights. He had intended staying longer, but a sick child at home compels him to return. Another large congregation gathered at the opera house last night and after several stirring hymns by the choir and audience, Mr. Needham announced his subject. Plating Away Sin." He adopted a novel method of treating the subject, which he requested one of the ministers on the plating authorized the subject, which he requested one of the ministers on the plating the subject in the plating and the subject, which he requested one of the ministers on the plating the subject, which he requested one of the ministers on the plating the subject, which he passage. The sermon was the old gospel pure and unadulterated, holding up Christ the substitute as the sinner's only hope. It is quite evident that the "new theology" which does away with the atonement for alin finds no place in Mr. Needham's heart and mind. Immediately at the close of the sermon Mr. Needham invited all who were interested in this matter tog to the basement of the Mr. E. Church, South, which in a few minimum and earnest talk on the line which the preacher had followed origing the hearers to "look to Jesus" for partino.
